COMPANY PROFILE

Aegean provides scheduled and charter passenger transport to Greek and international destinations from its bases at Athens International Airport, Thessaloniki, Rhodes, Heraklion as well as Larnaca in Cyprus. Its fleet comprises 29 aircraft of the Airbus A320 family (A319,A320,A321). Aegean Airlines began scheduled passenger operations in May 1999. The strategy of the company at its inception and to date is to provide full service, premium quality short and medium haul scheduled services.

Aegean also owns a technical base that performs everyday safety checks and heavy maintenance A and B-checks exclusively on Aegean's aircraft.

Aegean Airlines carried 6.1 million passengers in 2012. Since June 30, 2010 it is a member of STAR ALLIANCE, the strongest airline alliance worldwide.

It collaborates with Lufthansa, TAP Portugal, Brussels Airlines, BMI, Continental and US Airways on flights between Greece and European and US destinations.

The Company has been honored with the Skytrax World Airline award, as the best European regional airline for 2012.

REVENUES ANALYSIS (in € 000)

Company's exports represent 79.79% of total sales in 2012.

- Over the last years Aegean has expanded its international network to cover the major markets in Western Europe

- It has also invested on flights to new dynamic markets like Russia and Israel

Aegean had invested on strengthening its international presence and on supporting the Greek tourism both in Athens and in regional airports. Within the past 6 years, Aegean managed to triple the number of passengers travelled on its international network, despite the tough economic environment in Greece.

In 2012 Aegean operated a total of 116 international routes, flying out of 8 airports in Greece (Athens, Heraklion, Rhodes, Kos, Thessaloniki, Corfu, Santorini and Mykonos).

International network passengers reached 3.5 million in 2012 out of total 6.1 million passengers carried.

CURRENT PROJECTS

Aegean continues to invest on simplifying the travel experience. Among the services offered are electronic check-in, self-check-in at the airports, redeem miles and change reservation through the web as well as a mobile portal and mobile applications. The company's website is constantly upgraded and offers auxiliary travel services such as car rental, hotel reservations, travel guides as well as travel insurance.

FORTHCOMING PROJECTS/ INVESTMENTS – BUSINESS PLAN HIGHLIGHTS

The environment in Greece continues to be weak with a further drop in domestic demand witnessed in 2013. Within this deteriorating environment, Aegean efforts concentrate on cost management initiatives, the improvement of competitiveness through the offering of attractive fares and the continuous adjustment of its network depending on market conditions, the strategy and any opportunities that arise.
