6th “Dimitris Manolopoulos” Honorary Scholarship

Space Hellas announces the launch of the sixth annual program of honorary scholarships "Dimitris Manolopoulos," in memory of its founder.

The scholarships are two, amounting to six thousand euros each and will be awarded to graduates of higher public education institutions in Greece or equivalent higher education institutions abroad, who will enroll in the academic year 2024-2025 in Greek public universities, for postgraduate or doctoral degrees studies, in the area of information and communication technologies, and preferably in areas related to communication networks, Cyber Security and artificial intelligence (AI).

The Executive Chairman of Space Hellas, Mr. Spyros D. Manolopoulos, stated respectively: "The remarkable institution of rewarding and helping the studies of young people who seek progress for a better future, continues this year with the honorary scholarship established by Space Hellas since 2018, in memory of the late visionary and founder Dimitris Manolopoulos.

Through the scholarships, as part of our company's corporate responsibility program, we wish to support the development of young people with ambitions and vision in the field of technology. Our primary concern is that talented young people succeed in realizing their dreams and goals."

Interested parties can be informed on how to complete the online application form at <https://www.space.gr/en/scholarships>. The submission of applications and all necessary supporting documents shall be made electronically, through the company's website.
