INTRALOT announces new project with the British Columbia Lottery Corporation for online Lottery platform

November 4, 2024

INTRALOT S.A. is pleased to announce the undertaking of a new project between the British Columbia Lottery Corporation (BCLC), the sole lottery operator for the Government of British Columbia in Canada, and INTRALOT Inc., its US subsidiary, for the provision of an online lottery platform. The project also includes the digitalization of the existing land-based network.

The solution will be based on the Player X platform, part of the Lotos X ecosystem, and adds to the company's overall partnership with BCLC, which has been extended until 2028.
