

Athens, 03.12.2024

Appointment of new Chief Retail Banking and Wealth Management Officer

Attica Bank welcomes Mr. Stylianos Iliadis to its management team. Mr. Iliadis assumes the Chief Retail Banking and Wealth Management Officer position, with effect from 2.12.2024. Reporting to the CEO, he will join the Bank's Executive Committee and the Asset-Liability Management Committee (ALCO).

As Chief Retail Banking and Wealth Management Officer, Mr. Iliadis will lead strategic initiatives across all aspects of Consumer and Small Business Banking, including the Branch Network, distribution channels, products, and Wealth Management services.

Brief CV of the new Executive of Attica Bank Stylianos
Iliadis, Chief Retail Banking and Wealth Management Officer

Mr. Stylianos Iliadis brings over 33 years of distinguished experience in the financial sector, particularly in Retail Banking, Wealth Management and Corporate Financing, successfully managing all related business operations.

Mr. Iliadis has led the development and implementation of advanced retail strategies, managing extensive branch networks, SMEs financing, and digital transformation in Retail Banking, elevating customer experience and optimizing efficiency while integrating sustainability and innovation initiatives.

Since 2022, he held the position of General Manager - Retail Strategy & Segments at Piraeus Bank, previously holding the position of General Manager - Head of Southern Branch Network at the same bank. He was also a member of the boards of directors of subsidiary companies.

Mr. Iliadis holds a degree in Accounting & Finance from the University of West Attica.

ATTICA BANK S.A